WORK EXPERIENCE

Feb. 2021 – Present

Software Distribution Group

Technical Representative

- SDG is a company which provides technical support for Infoprim Software.
- The main thing I mastered since I started to work here is my communication skill, as I had contact with customers everyday and I had to understand their issues and explain them the most efficient way to solve their IT problems.

2022 – 2023

Personal Projects

Full-stack and Android Studio

- During this period, I learned a lot of new technologies from Udemy tutorials and Youtube programming channels.
